

“Membership in the American Legislative Exchange Council gives legislators like me the golden opportunity to listen and learn from the experiences of my peers. It is also very appealing that business leaders have a seat at the table to discuss how they may be impacted by the model policies we consider.”

– Speaker Tim Jones, Missouri

Democracy is a participatory process where ideas are shared and the best ideas are advanced.

The American Legislative Exchange Council is America’s largest nonpartisan, voluntary membership organization of state policymakers. The Council brings together nearly one-third of the country’s state legislators and hundreds of business leaders and policy analysts to exchange ideas and share experiences with their counterparts around the country.

Through research, evaluation, analysis and information exchange, the American Legislative Exchange Council is dedicated to collaborating with government, the private sector and the public as they address issues at the intersection of state policy and economic priorities.

Members work together to create policy solutions that improve the lives of millions around the United States.

Join the American Legislative Exchange Council and contribute your ideas and experiences to help foster a stable and predictable business environment.
